KING ME

Kowboys T-shirts (named after the playing card that bears a king) encourage you to ride hard and play harder. Celebrities such as Matt Damon sport these comfortable threads ($38 to $75), available at The Palms Casino Resort and other swanky locales.

MIRROR, MIRROR

There's more to this table mirror by Ad Notam than meets the eye. Flip a switch and a 5.6-inch LCD TV screen comes to life behind the glass. Connections accept satellite TV and a DVD player among others. From $4,400, this is looking good.

ON THE HORN

The world's first front-horn-loaded dual loudspeaker by Ferguson Hill combines awe-inspiring aesthetics with precision sonic design. The brainchild of a former aeronautical engineer, the FH-1 ($18,000 a pair) is cut from molded-cast acrylic and stands more than 5 feet tall and 3 feet wide.
